

PHILLIP MONTAGUE

PROFESSOR EMERITUS

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

WESTERN WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

PH.D. STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Representative Publications

Punishment as Societal Defense (Lanham, MD: Rowman and Littlefield, 1995).

"Self-Defense and Choosing Between Lives," Philosophical Studies, 40 (1981).

"Rights and Duties of Compensation," Philosophy and Public Affairs, 13 (1984).

"Infant Rights and the Morality of Infanticide," Nous, 23 (1989).

"Virtue Ethics, a Qualified Success Story," American Philosophical Quarterly, 29 (1992).

"Self-Defense and Innocence: Aggressors and Active Threats," Utilitas, 12 (2000).

"When Rights Conflict," Legal Theory, 7 (2001).

"Blameworthiness, Vice, and the Objectivity of Morals," Pacific Philosophical Quarterly, 85 (2004).

"Self-Defense, Culpability, and Distributive Justice," Law and Philosophy, 29 (2010).